The Last Supper
Matthew 26; John 13

STORY POINT: JESUS AND THE DISCIPLES ATE THE FIRST LORD’S SUPPER AT PASSOVER.

Jesus’ disciples went into the city to prepare the Passover meal. When the meal was ready, Jesus and His disciples reclined at the table. Jesus got up from the table, laid aside His outer robe, and wrapped a towel around His waist. Then He poured water into a basin and began washing His disciples’ feet.

Peter did not want Jesus to wash his feet. “You will never wash my feet—ever!” Peter said.

Jesus replied, “If I don’t wash you, you have no part with Me.”

When Jesus had washed His disciples’ feet and put on His robe, He reclined at the table and said, “Do you understand what I have done? I have given you an example to follow. You should wash one another’s feet.”

While they were eating, Jesus took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to the disciples. Jesus said, “Take and eat it; this is My body.” Then He took a cup and gave thanks. He gave it to His disciples and said, “All of you drink from it; this is My blood of the covenant, which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins.”

Christ Connection: At the Passover, Jesus shared His last meal with the disciples before His death and resurrection. Jesus said that His death would establish a new covenant. God’s people had broken the old covenant, and God promised to make a new covenant to forgive sins. God forgives the sins of those who trust in His Son, Jesus.
