Have you ever struggled to trust that Jesus can actually make a difference in your everyday life? Doubted when you wanted to believe or wrestled with the disappointment of unmet expectations? There are moments when it seems these connection points with God will never be altered. You're not alone. But there is hope.

For Jesus' friends and followers, life was never the same after Easter. His influence and impact on their world, on our world, was life-changing. Everyone and everything was altered. Over the next two weeks (April 11th and 18th), explore with us four stories of how Jesus restored our future and eternity.

We encourage you to listen to all four stories over the course of the next two weeks and use the questions below to create space for the Holy Spirit to work these stories about the risen Jesus into your heart and life.
